Police Investigate Death of Man at Home for Aged

Police and the coroner's office are investigating the case of Thomas Acton, 57, who died Sunday morning at the Home for the Aged and Infirm in Blue Plains. He suffered a head injury when struck by an automobile last January 15, police said, and the investigation is to determine whether that injury caused death.

Following the accident, which occurred on Eleventh street at Pennsylvania avenue N.W., Mr. Acton was treated at Emergency Hospital and later was transferred to Gallinger Hospital. He had been at Blue Plains since July 11. He formerly lived in the 900 block of New York avenue N.W., police were told.
