Marion C. Allen Rites Today in Hyattsville

Funeral services for Marion C. Allen, 69, lifelong resident of the Washington area and a Navy Yard employe for more than 30 years, were to be held this afternoon in the Gasch funeral home, 4739 Baltimore avenue, Hyattsville. Burial was to be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. Allen died Sunday at his home, 4314 Forty-first street, Brentwood, Md., after a long illness.

Born and educated in Washington, he went to work at the Navy Yard as a machinist and retired because of disability 16 years ago.

A Mason, Mr. Allen was a member of Wesgate Lodge in Mount Rainier and a Navy Yard lodge. He belonged to Brentwood (Md.) Methodist Church and at one time served on the board of trustees.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Bessie H. Allen; a daughter, Mrs. Amelia A. Argent, of the Brentwood address; a son, William T. Allen, 3900 Hamilton street, Hyattsville, and two grandchildren.
