

Carman R. Bates

(- 10 Feb 1953)

The Evening Star, February 12, 1953, p. A26

Mrs. C. Raymond Bates, Widow of Real Estate Man

Mrs. C. Raymond Bates, 62, widow of a prominent Washington real estate man who died in 1950, died of a heart attack Tuesday in Providence Hospital after a week's illness. She lived at 214 Massachusetts avenue N.E.

Mrs. Bates, a native of Washington, was employed the past two years at the Modart Drapery Shop, 2934 M street N.W. A son, Raymond W., has an interior decorating concern at the same address.

Surviving also are another son, Donald B., of Lanham, Md.; two brothers, George C. Walling, 1711 Franklin street N.E., and Joseph B. Walling, 1413 Girard street N.W., and a sister, Mrs. Donald Nace, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow in Chambers' funeral home, 3072 M street N.W. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.