Edward T. Bates Dies After Long Illness

For Many Years Connected With Realty Firm--In District Employ

After an illness lasting several months, Edward Truesdell Bates, a life-long resident of the District, died at his home, 2819 18th street early today. Funeral services will be held at the residence Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Born in Washington 62 years ago, the son of the late Robert W. and Sarah R. Bates, both natives of the city, Mr. Bates received his education in the public schools of the District, and for many years was connected with the real estate firm of E.F. Fox & Company. For several years prior to his recent illness he had been employed in the engineering department of the District government.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. M. Alice Bates, and one brother, W.C. Bates of this city.

Mr. Bates was an active member of the Association of Oldest Inhabitants of the District of Columbia and a member of Osiris Lodge of Masons.
