Mrs. T.H. Bean Dies Visiting Sister Here

Was Widow of Scientist Once Connected With Bureau of Fisheries

Mrs. Tarleton H. Bean, widow of Dr. Tarleton H. Bean, at one time connected with the United States Fish Commission in this city and widely known as a scientist, died last night at the home of her sister, Mrs. Middleton Smith, 1724 Euclid street northwest. The funeral will be held at the home of her sister tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, and the interment will be in Congressional cemetery. Rev. James J. Queally, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Transfiguration, will conduct the services.

Mrs. Bean was sixty-five years old. She had spent the winter in Palm Beach, Fla., for her health, and, returning to her home in Westport, Conn., stopped off here to visit her sister. She had been in declining health for a long time. Mrs. Bean was well known socially here. She is survived by her daughter, Miss Caroline Van H. Bean; three sisters, Mrs. Smith of this city, Mrs. D.G. Browne of Montana and Mrs. Emma T. Morris of Newport, R.I., and three brothers, John Clifford VanHook, Charles Gordon VanHook and James Malone VanHook.
