George B. Bishop, 63, Veteran Mail Man, Dies Distributed Letters for 37 Years on Water Front -- Funeral to Be Held Wednesday Morning

George B. Bishop, 63, veteran retired letter carrier, who was a familiar figure around the Seventh street water front, where he carried mail continuously for 37 years -- representing his entire career -- died at his home, 506 G street southwest, yesterday after an illness of several months.

Mr. Bishop had a wide acquaintance with the business men around the water front. Some years ago they presented him with a purse in token of appreciation of his popularity, gained through many years of faithful service. He was retired two years ago.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Addie Bishop; a sister, Mrs. Clara V. Smoot and a brother, Charles W. Bishop.

Funeral services will be conducted in St. Dominic's Catholic Church Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in the family plot in Congressional Cemetery.
