Joseph Blumer Dies; Funeral Tomorrow

Joseph Walter Blumer, 69, native of Washington, died yesterday in Providence Hospital of uremic poisoning. He will be buried tomorrow in Congressional Cemetery after funeral services at his home, 1343 Kenyon street.

When Mr. Blumer retired from the Post Office Department, early in 1933, after 44 years' service, he received a letter of commendation from Postmaster General Brown and a gold medal from his fellow workers. He entered the department's service as a letter carrier and was a special clerk at the time of his retirement.

Mr. Blumer was born here December 17, 1867. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Florence Y. Blumer; two sons, Earl and William B., and a daughter, Mrs. Edna Boiseau, all of Washington
