

Paul M. Bohannon

(- 16 Aug 1927)

Bohannon. On August 16, 1927 at 9:45 a.m., Paul M., beloved husband of Mae Hardy Bohannon. Notice of funeral hereafter.

The Evening Star, August 17, 1927, p. 9

Paul Bohannon Dies

Paul M. Bohannon, 30 years old, of 1357 South Carolina avenue southeast died yesterday at Providence Hospital following an illness of two years. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 at the home of his mother, Mrs. B.F. Kullman, 312 South Carolina avenue southeast. Rev. Arthur B. Rudd of the National Cathedral officiated. Interment was in the Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. Bohannon was a native of the District, his family having lived in Southeast Washington for many years. He was a Mason and was active in both the Shrine and Knights Templar. Before his illness, he was a bookkeeper in the Citizens' Savings Bank.

Surviving Mr. Bohannon are his widow, Mrs. Mae Hardy Bohannon; his mother, two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Hunt of New York City and Mrs. Edward L. Scott of Washington, and a brother, Ernest Bohannon, also of this city.