

Frederick E. Bradley

(- 29 Feb 1928)

Bradley. Suddenly, on Wednesday, February 29, 1928, Frederick E., beloved husband of Mary A. Bradley (nee Pallas) and son of Sallie C. Bradley and the late Walter R. Bradley. Funeral services at his late residence, 430 Newton place northwest, Saturday, March 3, at 8:30 a.m.

The Washington Post, March 3, 1928, p. 11

Rites For F.E. Bradley

Veteran of Bureau of Engraving and Printing Will Be Buried Today

Funeral services for Frederick E. Bradley, 37 years old, employe of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing 25 years, who died Wednesday morning, will be conducted at 8:30 o'clock this morning from his residence, 430 Newton place northwest. Mass will be celebrated at 9 o'clock in St. Gabriel's Catholic Church. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Surviving Mr. Bradley are his wife, Mary A. Bradley (nee Pallas); his mother, Mrs. Sallie Burch Bradley; two daughters, Irma and Eileen; two brothers, Walter R. Bradley, jr., and Dr. H. Clay Bradley, and four sisters, Mrs. Ernest Miller, Mrs. John D. Smith, Mrs. H.L. Jones and Mrs. Charles H. Norris, of Charlotte, N.C. Mr. Bradley was a son of the late Walter R. Bradley.