

William H. Branson

( – 15 Feb 1873)

---

The Evening Star, January 10, 1857

Accident

Yesterday, William Branson, a workman at the Navy Yard, while engaged in putting up machinery in the new anchor shop was seriously injured by a fall. The wounds of the injured man were dressed by the surgeon of the Yard, and he was conveyed to his home.