

Harrison Gaston Brewer

(Sep 1856 – 22 Jan 1920)

Brewer. The remains of Harrison Brewer, beloved husband of Marcie Elliott Brewer, who died January 22, 1920, will be buried in Congressional Cemetery on Wednesday, July 14 at 2 p.m.

The Evening Star July 13, 1920, p. 7

Harrison Brewer Dies

Was Son of Gen. Brewer of Annapolis -- Burial Here Tomorrow

Harrison G. Brewer, of 2248 Cathedral avenue died Sunday. He will be buried at Congressional cemetery tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Brewer is survived by his widow who was Miss Marcie Elliott of Greenville, Tenn., and by a son and two daughters. They are Elliott Brewer of Narberth, Pa., Mrs. K. Helen Dunsworth of Washington and Mrs. Edward S. Saw of Santo Domingo. Two brothers also are living -- Nichols G. Brewer of Savannah, Ga. and Frank Brewer of Newport News, Va.

The son of Gen. Nicholas Brewer of Annapolis for a time adjutant general of Maryland. Mr. Brewer came from distinguished ancestry. His maternal grandfather was Col. Allen, who helped defend Baltimore against the British in 1812, and he also was related to the two Harrisons who became President.

The Evening Star, January 23, 1920, p. 14

The Funeral of H.G. Brewer

Services at Home Tomorrow for Chief of Navy Chart Division

Funeral services for Harrison G. Brewer, chief of the division of chart construction of the Navy Department, who died at his residence, 2248 Cathedral avenue northwest, yesterday, will be held at Lee's undertaking chapel, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the Rev. H.H. Sterrett officiating.

Mr. Brewer was born in Annapolis, Md., in 1856, and came to Washington when a boy. He was a graduate in architectural engineering of Johns Hopkins University, and was identified with the Navy Department for more than 30 years. He is survived by his wife, Marcie E. Brewer. One of his two daughters is Mrs. K.H. Dunsworth, of Washington.

Note: Descended from the Kings of Scotland.