

Hanson Brown (Jr.)

(– 8 Feb 1884)

Brown. On the 8th February 1884, Hanson Brown, aged 73 years. Funeral from his son's residence, 17th street between Massachusetts avenue and C streets southeast Sunday at 3 o'clock p.m.

The Evening Star, February 9, 1884

Locals

Hanson Brown who had resided in East Washington for 60 years and was formerly a member of the police force, died yesterday aged 73 years. He was prominently identified with the Waugh M.E. church.

The Evening Star, February 11, 1884

Locals

The funeral of Mr. Hanson Brown, which took place yesterday afternoon from his late home in East Washington, was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Ryland officiated. The pall-bearers were Messrs. William Brown, Dennis Nalley, Charles Luskie, John Shomo, Samuel Cook, Frederick Tune.

The Washington Post, February 9, 1884, p. 4

City News In Brief

...

Mr. Henson Brown died at his residence in East Washington yesterday, in the seventy-third year of his age. He was a man of great strength and endurance, and gained quite a reputation in his younger days for having thrashed a notorious fighter of Georgetown named 'Bull' frizzle. Mr. Brown was a member of the Fire and Police departments.