

Philip Maury Buckey

(- 8 Mar 1928)

Buckey. Suddenly on March 8, 1928, at his residence, 1733 Park rd., Philip Maury Buckey, beloved husband of Cora J. Buckey (nee Russell). Funeral services Monday at 2 p.m. at his late residence. Interment Congressional Cemetery (Jacksonville, Fla. Papers please copy).

The Evening Star, March 10, 1928, p. 3

Philip Maury Buckey, clerk in the division of publications, Department of Agriculture, died from a heart attack at his residence, 1753 Park road, Thursday. He was 72 years old.

Born in Wilmington, Del., Mr. Buckey was the son of the late Philip J. and Mary M. Buckey. He was married to Miss Cora J. Russell in 1879. The couple resided in New York, where Mr. Buckey was connected with the United States Customs Service for many years until transferred here in 1913. He was for 32 years a member of the Colfax Council, Royal Acanum, of New York City.

He is survived by his widow; a daughter, Mrs. Margaret R. Wright of this city; a son, Howard R. Buckey of Jacksonville, Fla., and a sister, Miss Mary M. Buckey of this city.

Funeral services will be conducted at the residence Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Charles T. Warner, rector of St. Alban's Episcopal Church, will officiate. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

The Washington Post, March 10, 1928, p. 10

Rites For Philip M. Buckey

Services for U.S. Employee to Be Held Monday; Burial in Congressional

Funeral services for Philip Maury Buckey, 72 years old, an employe of the Federal Government for 23 years, who died Thursday morning at his home, 1753 Park road, will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home. Interment will be at Congressional Cemetery.

Born in Wilmington, Del., Mr. Buckey came to Washington at the age of 6, removed to New York in 1879 and returned to this city to enter the Agriculture Department in 1913. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Cora J. Buckey; a daughter, Mrs. Margaret R. Wright; a son, Howard R. Buckey, of Jacksonville, Fla., and a sister, Miss Mary Buckey, of this city.

The Washington Post, March 11, 1928, p. M14

Philip Maury Buckley Rites

Services to Be Held Tomorrow With Burial in Congressional Cemetery

Funeral services for Philip Maury Buckley, 72 years old, employe of the publication division of the Department of Agriculture, will be held tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock at the home, 1753 Park Road northwest. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery. The Rev. Charles T. Warner, rector of St. Alban's Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Mr. Buckley was a native of Wilmington, Del. In 1913 he came to this city and entered the Federal department employment as a clerk. Prior to his employment here, he was connected with the United States Customs Service in New York. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Cora Russell Buckley; a daughter, Mrs. Margaret R. Wright, of this city, and a son, Howard R. Buckley, of Jacksonville, Fla.