

Maude R. Burbank

(- 8 Oct 1951)

Burbank, Maude R. Suddenly on Monday, October 8, 1951 at her residence, 1901 Columbia rd. n.w., Miss Maude R. Burbank, beloved sister of Dr. Caryl Burbank and aunt of Dr. Daniel N. Burbank of Newark, N.J., and Richard W. Burbank of Leesburg, Va. Funeral services will be held at Hysong's Funeral Home, 1300 N st n.w., on Thursday, October 11, at 2 p.m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, October 10, 1951, p. A26

Miss Maude R. Burbank, District Teacher for 50 Years

Miss Maude R. Burbank, 73, a District school teacher for 50 years, died Monday at her home, 1901 Columbia road N.W.

She was a native of Washington and began teaching here in 1896 when she was 18 after graduating from the District Normal School. Miss Burbank retired in 1946.

Miss Burbank is survived by a brother, Dr. Caryl Burbank of 3813 Legation street N.W., and two nephews, Dr. Daniel N. Burbank of Newark, N.J., and Richard W. Burbank of Leesburg Va.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in the Hysong funeral home, 1300 N street N.W. The Rev. C. Stewart McKenzie, pastor of Western Presbyterian Church, will conduct the service. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.