Death Claims Victim

Widow of Dr. deCarvallo, United States Army

Mrs. Emma deCarvallo, widow of Dr. Carlos deCarvallo, United States Army, and a lady widely known and universally respected, died at 1 o'clock this morning in her apartments at the Concord. Her husband, who was the son of a former minister from Chile to this country, died in 1884. Her only son, Carlos Carvallo, a promising young man, died in this city a few years ago. His mother never fully recovered from her grief.

Mrs. Carvallo's maiden name was Baylis, and her family is well known among the older residents. She is survived by a daughter, Miss Maraquita Carvallo; a sister, Mrs. Hartley Soule, and other relatives. Mrs. Carvallo was a woman of fine attainments, and as a writer was always forcible and interesting.

The funeral services will take place tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock at St. Paul's Church, 15th and V streets.

Mrs. Emma deCarvallo's Funeral

A large number of friends were present this morning at 9:30 at St. Paul's Church, 15th and V streets, at the funeral of the late Mrs. Emma de Carvallo, whose death occurred Sunday night at the Concord. Rev. Father Foley celebrated a low mass of requiem, and among the clergymen in the sanctuary were Rev. Dr. Stafford of St. Patrick's Church and Rev. Father Lynan, S.J., of St. Aloysius Church. Most of the South American diplomats were present and accompanied the funeral cortege to Congressional cemetery, where the interment was made.
