

Ida Jane Carver

( - 6 Nov 1935)

---

Carver, Ida Jane. Suddenly on Wednesday, November 6, 1935, Ida Jane Carver (nee Rollins), the beloved wife of William A. Carver, mother of Ruth A. Snellings, Mrs. Esther J. Sheriff, Miss Ida Naomi Carver and William Joseph Carver, sister of Robert A. Rollins and Lou Hutchell. Remains resting at her late residence, 756 13th st. s.e. until Saturday, November 9 at 2:30 p.m. Funeral services will be held at the Grace Baptist Church, 9th st. and South Carolina ave. s.e., at 3 p.m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, November 7, 1935, p. A2

Mrs. Ida Jane Carver Dies of Heart Attack

Funeral to Be Held Saturday for Woman Stricken While Attending Church

Stricken with a heart attack while attending revival services at the Grace Baptist Church last night, Mrs. Ida Jane Carver, 54, was pronounced dead on arrival at Providence Hospital.

Mrs. Carver, who attended the services with her husband and three daughters had been under the care of a physician for several years. Her home was at 756 Thirteenth street southeast.

Surviving are her husband, William A. Carver; a son, William, jr., and three daughters, Naomi and Esther Carver and Mrs. Ruth Snellings.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Grace Baptist Church. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.