

Augustus D. Cheseldine

( - 9 Aug 1896)

---

Cheseldine. On Sunday, August 9, 1896, at 6 p.m., Augustus D. Cheseldine, beloved husband of Jane F. Cheseldine, in the 48th year of his age. Funeral Tuesday, August 11 at 3 p.m., from his late residence, 218 I street southeast. Friends and relatives invited to attend. (Baltimore and Indianapolis papers please copy).

The Evening Star, August 10, 1896

Little Hope Given

Indications of Continuance of the Prevailing Weather

A Deadly Sunday Record

Persons Killed by the Heat All Over the Country

Six Victims Here

An Appalling Death Record

... Augustus D. Cheseldine, a tinner, 50 years old residing at 218 I street southeast who was stricken Thursday while repairing the roof of the Fifth precinct police station, died yesterday afternoon at Providence Hospital. He leaves a widow and a child.