The Funeral

of Mr. John D. Clark, Jr., eldest son of John T.C. Clark, esq., who died after a lingering pulmonary disease on Thursday, took place from his father's residence, No. 1914 N street, Sunday, and was largely attended. Mr. Clark was in the 31st year of his age and had many warm friends, who regret his early demise as he was noted for his manly and generous qualities. Many friends of the family sympathize with them in this bereavement.
