

Satterlee Clarke

(- 1 Mar 1848)

Clarke. In this city on the 1st instant, Major Satterlee Clarke of Michigan, formerly a paymaster in the U.S. Army in the 65th year of his age.

Cullum, Biographical Register of U.S. Military Academy

Class of 1807: Satterlee Clark. Not Ranked (27th to graduate from the Academy)

Born and appointed from Virginia.

Cadet of the Military Academy, May 15, 1805 to December 9, 1807 when he was graduated and promoted in the Army to 2d Lieut., Regiment of Artillerists.

Served in garrison at Atlantic Posts, 1807-10; in the Pay Department 1810-12 and during the War with Great Britain, 1812-15. Disbanded June 15, 1815. Reappointed in the Army with the rank of Battalion and District Paymaster, April 29, 1816. Served in the Pay Department 1816-24, at Washington D.C., 1816-21 and at Utica New York, 1821-24, when under the 3d Sec. of Act of Jan. 31, 1823 he was dismissed, August 5, 1824.

Sutter at Fort Howard, Wisconsin, 1828-42. Died March 1, 1848 at Washington City.

Ranks:

2d Lieut., Regiment of Artillerists, December 9, 1807

District Paymaster, August 15, 1810

1st Lieut., Regiment of Artillerists, July 10, 1811 to Dec. 31, 1813

Major, 26th Infantry, April 15, 1814 (Declined)

Battalion and District Paymaster, April 29, 1816

Paymaster in the Reorganization of the Army, June 1, 1821 to rank from April 29, 1816

From West Point application: Student of Burlington College. Son of General Isaac Clarke "who distinguished himself as an active Officer in the Northern district during the Revolutionary War.

Will of Saterlee Clark, Sr., of City of Washington (dtd. Feb. 14, 1848, probated March 27, 1849; Book 6, pp. 230-231; O.S. 2924; Box 20)

I have a petition before Congress arising under a judgment in my favor in the State of New York, which I consider a just claim for between fifteen and twenty seven thousand dollars; should it allowed in whole or in part, from it debts to be paid.

To Mrs. Campbell, where at present I am residing, $500.

Residue of amount and property to wife, with full power and authority to dispose of the same amongst her children as she may think proper.

A contract under a power of attorney by me entered into with A. Fuller, of Washington City, to be carried into full execution.

Wits.: John H. Eaton; Samuel C. Stambaugh; James Shackelford