

John Clinton Cook

(- 12 Sep 1917)

Cook. Suddenly, on September 12, 1917, at 8:20 p.m., at Casualty Hospital, John C., only son of Ella G. Cook (nee Walker) and the late James R. Cook. Funeral Saturday from his uncle's residence, W.H. Beavers, 1016 South Carolina avenue southeast, at 3:30 p.m.

The Evening Star, September 13, 1917, p. 5

Skull Fractured in Collision

John C. Cook, nineteen years old, of 1016 South Carolina avenue southeast is at Casualty Hospital with a fractured skull, as the result of being knocked from his motorcycle in a collision with a an automobile about noon today, on 3d street southwest. His condition is regarded as critical, Michael L.J. McCabe of Good Hope, D.C., who operated the automobile, was arrested by Policeman Vaughn of the fourth precinct.

The Evening Star, September 13, 1917, p. 9

Dies Of His Injuries

John C. Cook Sustains Fractured Skull in Accident

John C. Cook, nineteen years old, of 1016 South Carolina avenue southeast, who was injured in an accident at 3d street and Virginia avenue southwest yesterday, died last night at Casualty Hospital. His skull was fractured.

Cook was riding a motorcycle on Virginia avenue when he collided with an automobile operated by Michael J. McCabe of Good Hope, D.C.

Coroner Nevitt ordered an inquest be held this afternoon at the District morgue.