

Job Edwin Crampton

(10 May 1834 – 19 Feb 1914)

Crampton. On Thursday, February 19, 1914 at 7:55 a.m., Job E. Crampton, in the 80th year of his age. Funeral from his late residence, 722 7th street s.w., Saturday, February 21 at 3 o'clock p.m. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

Crampton. I.O.O.F. A special meeting of Mt. Nebo Encampment #6 will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock to arrange for the funeral of our late fellow member, J.E. Crampton.

Thomas W. Fowler, Scribe

The Evening Star, February 19, 1914, p. 2

Job E. Crampton Dead

Native of Capital, Having Been Born Here 79 Years Ago

Job E. Crampton, seventy-nine years old, died at his home, 722 7th street southwest, this morning. The deceased was a native of the city and had resided in South Washington all his life. He was connected with the Havenner Baking Company many years ago.

Mr. Crampton was a member of Dawson Lodge, No. 16, F.A.A.M., and Eastern Lodge, No. 7, I.O.O.F. He is survived by two sons, J.E. and J.W. Crampton, and one daughter, Mrs. M.E. Taylor. Funeral services will be conducted at his late home at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.