Death of Harry Crown

Harry Crown of 1345 32nd street died yesterday morning at 2 o'clock, after a short illness with typhoid fever. The deceased was twenty years of age, and was quite popular. The young man had been feeling unwell for some time, but he refused to give up, until the last moment, when he was forced to take his bed, from which he never arose. He was a prominent Rechabite and a member of Heber Tent, No. 19. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the services being held at the West Street Presbyterian Church, Rev. W.C. Alexander officiating.
