Harry G. Davis Dies

D.C. Inspector of Navy Ordnance Succumbs in Philadelphia

Harry G. Davis of this city, an assistant inspector of ordnance in the Navy, died several days ago at the naval hospital at Philadelphia. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the family residence, 1006 Maryland avenue northeast. A detail from the U.S.S. Mayflower were pallbearers.

Inspector Davis was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John McC. Davis and a native of Washington. He attended the public schools and McKinley High School. He was a chief machinist's mate in the Navy before being made an inspector of ordnance. Nine weeks ago he was stricken with influenza while on special duty in Philadelphia.
