Charles G. Dulin Dead

Prominent Resident of This City Victim of Heart Disease

Mr. Charles G. Dulin died yesterday at 1 o'clock at his residence, 1730 Sixteenth street, from an attack of heart disease. Funeral services will be held at the house Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mr. Dulin's death was unexpected to all except those within the immediate circle of his acquaintances and the announcement was received with sincere sorrow by those who knew the deceased and appreciated his many estimable qualities. He had been for the past ten days confined to his room, and recently alarming symptoms were developed. As stated, his death resulted from heart disease.

Mr. Dulin was a native of this city, where he had spent the greater portion of the forty-five years of his life. He received his education in the public schools and then studied medicine, but never practiced his profession. He married Miss Mary E. Brown of Boston. Two children--Albert B. Dulin and Mary B.--and his wife survive him. Mr. Dulin was a member of the Masonic fraternity.
