

Norris K. Flood

(- 24 Jan 1917)

Flood. On Wednesday, January 24, 1917, at 10:15 p.m., Norris K., beloved son of John T. and Louisa K. Flood, aged five years. Funeral Saturday, January 27, 2 p.m., from his parents' residence, 1010 5th street northeast. Interment private.

The Evening Star, January 25, 1917, p. 10

Injury To Boy Fatal

Norris Flood Dies as Result of Accident – Funeral Saturday

Norris Flood, five years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Flood, 1010 5th street northeast who was injured Tuesday afternoon when a stick was jammed through his eye while at play near his home, died at Casualty Hospital last night about 10:30 o'clock.

Norris was riding a velocipede and was carrying a stick that was intended as an imitation of a gun, it is stated, and a large brass tack in the end of it was jammed through his eye and into the brain. Coroner Nevitt this morning made an investigation of Norris' death and gave a certificate of accidental death.

Funeral services will be held at the Flood residence Saturday afternoon. Mr. Flood is a distributor in the mail bag repair shop