

Milton Garrett

(6 Apr 1813 – 17 May 1869)

---

Garrett. On the night of the 17th of heart disease, Milton Garrett, formerly of Jefferson County, Va. His funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence, 204 G street south.

The Evening Star, May 18, 1869

Sudden Death

Mr. Milton Garrett, an old resident of the First Ward, died quiet suddenly last night at his residence on G street, as is supposed of disease of the heart. Mr. Garrett came from Harper's Ferry, Va., where he was employed in the Armory, to this city, and for many years was a prominent bacon dealer in our markets, but retired from business about the commencement of the war. December 25, 1917, at 3:30 a.m., after a very brief illness, Lucian, beloved husband of Ella R. Garner. Funeral from his late residence, 1828 S street northwest at 2 p.m. Thursday, December 27.