Drowned While Skating on Lake George

The remains of Edward Guigon, aged 24, son of Mr. P. Guigon, a respected citizen of Uniontown, were borne to their last resting place, in Congressional cemetery, yesterday, followed by a large number of the relatives and friends of the deceased. The Rev. Mr. McKee, rector of Emanuel Episcopal church, officiated on the occasion. It may be remembered that young Mr. Guigon was one of a party of three (brothers-in-law) who were drowned last Tuesday, while skating on Lake George, N.Y.
