Mrs. Hardey Expires After Long Illness

Mother of Advertising Manager of Woodward & Lothrop's Dies Here

Mrs. Mary Fannie Hardey, 75, a resident of Washington for 30 years, died this morning at her home, 221 Eighth street northeast, following an illness of nearly three years.

Mrs. Hardey was a native of Newport, Charles County, Md. Her husband, Francis E. Hardey, died many years ago. Mrs. Hardey was active in the affairs of St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

Surviving her are four sons and a daughter, James William Hardey, advertising manager of Woodward & Lothrop's store; Eugene A., John C. and Joseph R. Hardey, all of this city, and Mrs. Mabel A. Laughlin of Arizona.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.
