

Margaret M. Jones

(- 24 Jan 1950)

Jones, Margaret R. January 24, 1950, of 37 Rhode Island ave. n.w., mother of Anna M. Jones and Mrs. Margaret J. Lenn. Services at the above residence Friday, January 27, at 2:30 p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery. Services by Chambers.

The Evening Star, January 25, 1950, p. A14

Mrs. Margaret Jones, 85, Lifelong Resident, Dies

Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Margaret M. Jones, 85, a lifelong resident of Washington, died yesterday of a heart ailment at her home, 37 Rhode Island avenue N.W.

Mrs. Jones was the widow of William T. Jones who had been associated with the Topham Trunk Co. here until his death in 1903.

A member of the Washington Monument Society, she was the daughter of the late William E. Richards, a Washington contractor who was active in construction of the Washington Monument. Her early schooling was received at the old Wallach School.

Mrs. Jones attended the Highlands Baptist Church, 5314 Fourteenth street N.W.

Her two daughters, Miss Anna M. Jones and Mrs. Margaret J. Lenn, both of the Rhode Island avenue address, four grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren survive.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Friday at her home. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

The Washington Post, January 25, 1950, p. B2

Mrs. Jones, Lifelong D.C. Resident, Dies

Mrs. Margaret M. Jones, 85, a lifetime resident of Washington, died yesterday at her home at 37 Rhode Island ave. nw. She had been ill with a heart ailment since January 1.

Mrs. Jones was the widow of William T. Jones, who had been associated with the old Topham Trunk Co. here until his death in 1903.

A member of the Washington Monument Society, Mrs. Jones was the daughter of the late William E. Richards, a Washington contractor who was active in the effort to construct the Washington Monument. Mrs. Jones was educated in Washington public schools and was a past member of the Maccabees.

She leaves two daughters, Miss Anna M. Jones and Mrs. Margaret J. Lenn, both of the Rhode Island ave. address; four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the home at 2:30 p.m. Friday. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.