John W. Kenny Dies, Victim of Pneumonia

Member of Fifth Police Precinct Had Tended Sick Wife and Child

John W. Kenny, member of the fifth precinct police command died at his home, 1241 E street southeast, yesterday. Death was due to an attack of pneumonia he contracted after his wife and only child had suffered an attack.

During their illness, it is stated, he was unable to get much help and found it necessary to remain off duty and spend practically every minute of his time with sick members of his family. Ten days ago he became sick and had to go to bed

He was a native of this city. He was thirty-six years old. His father, John Kenny, was a lieutenant of police in this city for many years.

The son served in the United States Navy and was first-class gunner's mate at the expiration of his term of enlistment. He was a member of Naval Lodge, No. 4, F.A.A.M.
