

Anna J. Kirkley

(- 6 Dec 1960)

The Evening Star, December 8, 1960, p. B4

Mrs. Kirkley, 89, Church Worker and D.C. Native

Mrs. Charles W. Kirkley, 89, a retired employe of the Haskin Service, a research firm, died Tuesday at a local home for the aged after a long illness.

Mrs. Kirkley, the former Anna J. Bellew, was a native Washingtonian. A widow since 1916, she was very active in many church activities in the area and had been associated with various women's auxiliaries of veterans associations here and in Florida.

She leaves a brother, William A. Bellew of Norwalk, Conn.; four sons, George W. of 719 Woodburn road, Rockville, Md.; Joseph B., of 5336 Colorado avenue N.W.; Walter M., of 708 Devonshire road, Takoma Park, Md., and Carl H., of Venice, Fla.

Services will be private. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.