Funeral Services Today For William B. Kuhns

Funeral services for William B. Kuhns, 38, retired Washington policeman who died last Saturday in a hospital in St. Petersburg, Fla. Were to be held at 2 p.m. today at the Lee funeral home, Fourth street and Massachusetts avenue N.E., with the Rev. Dr. Hunter M. Lewis, assistant rector of the Church of the Epiphany, officiating. Burial was to be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. Kuhns was retired in November, 1942, after 14 years' service with the Metropolitan police force, because of disability due to an injury received when he was kicked in the groin while making an arrest more than a year before. His widow said an autopsy performed in St. Petersburg showed that death was due to the injury.

A native of Minneapolis, Mr. Kuhns was stationed at the third precinct and lived at 417 Fifth street N.E. He was a member of the Retired Policemen's Association.

Besides his widow, the former Susan C. Jones, who is now living with her mother at the Fifth street address, Mr. Kuhns is survived by a 13-year-old daughter, Susan Ann, and his mother, Mrs. Ella M. Kuhns of Minneapolis.
