Mrs. Maddox, Widow of Ohio Air Engineer

Mrs. Edna Carpenter Maddox, 73, a native of the District, died yesterday of a heart attack after she collapsed while shopping at a downtown department store.

The widow of Luther Maddox, an aeronautical engineer, she lived in the Maryland Court Apartments at 816 E street N.W.

Mrs. Maddox attended public schools here and later served as secretary to her father, Benjamin Carpenter, an architect who designed many of the old homes on Capitol Hill.

Shortly before World War I she was married and with her husband went to Dayton, Ohio, where he was working.

Mrs. Maddox returned here in 1954 upon the death of her husband. She leaves no immediate family.

Services will be at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Lee funeral home, with burial in Congressional Cemetery.
