Suitland Man Dies In Crash

David H. Mann, 29, a Suitland gas station attendant, was killed Wednesday night when his car veered off Suitland rd. and struck a tree, police reported.

Mann, of 4806 Eastern La., Suitland, was alone in the car at the time of the 9:28 p.m. crash, police said. He was taken to Prince George's Hospital, where he was pronounced dead by a staff physician at 10:03 p.m.

The accident occurred near the Arnold Road intersection as Mann was driving east on Suitland Road. The cause of the crash was still undetermined yesterday, police said.
