

Elizabeth Henrietta Marks

(- 28 Dec 1912)

Marks. Suddenly on December 28, 1912 at her residence, 1363 K street southeast, Elizabeth H. Marks, widow of the late Jacob Marks. Remains may be seen at W.W. Deal and Co.'s funeral parlor, 732 11 street southeast. Funeral from Wilson Memorial Church, Monday, Dec. 30 at 2 p.m. Interment at Congressional cemetery.

The National Intelligencer, December 28, 1912, p. 12

Found Dead In Bed

Mrs. Henrietta Marks Had Been Suffering From Attacks of Indigestion

Mrs. Henrietta Marks, sixty-eight years old, who conducted a small grocery at 1365 K street southeast, was found dead in bed this morning. Customers who went to the store this morning to make purchases for breakfast were surprised to find the store closed.

Policeman Kite of the fifth precinct forced a door and found Mrs. Marks' dead body in bed. Mrs. Marks had been ill, the police were told, having suffered from indigestion, but her death was unexpected. The coroner gave a certificate of death from natural causes.