Rites For Mrs. McGowan

Services Today for D.C. Resident Who Died in California

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida A. McGowan, 76 years old, a resident of Washington for more than 50 years, who died March 22 in Los Angeles, Calif., were held this afternoon at Zurhorst's Funeral Parlor, 301 East Capitol street. Rev. Freeley Rohrer, pastor of the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church officiated. Burial was in Congressional Cemetery.

Mrs. McGowan was the widow of David F. McGowan, a clerk in the United States Treasury until his retirement several years ago. For the past six years Mrs. McGowan had been living in Georgia. She went to Los Angeles six months ago to visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Searle.

She is survived by a son, Chester E. McGowan of Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. Searle, her sister, and a brother, Huston Miller of Los Angeles.
