Mrs. Anna R. Mohun Is Given Last Rites

Employed at Library of Congress Before Her Retirement

She Is Buried Here

Funeral services were held this morning at Epiphany Church for Mrs. Anna R. Mohun, widow of William Ward Mohun, who died suddenly Sunday night in her home, 2700 Connecticut avenue, following a heart attack. Burial was in the family plot in Congressional Cemetery. Rev. Z.B. Phillips officiated at the services.

Mrs. Mohun had spent Sunday evening with friends and was stricken shortly after.

She was retired only recently from the copyright office, Library of Congress, in which she had served since 1897. She was the daughter of the late O.H. Morrison, for many years a lawbook publisher here and Anna Clark Morrison. She was born here and was graduated from Park Seminary here. Her husband was an active attorney here up to the time of his death in 1895.

Mrs. Mohun is survived by a daughter, Mildred Mohun Boteler, with whom she made her home, and one son, W. Ward Mohun, an executive in the Willys-Overland Motor Car Co. Toledo, Ohio.
