

John Mothershead

(1822 – 21 Dec 1855)

The Evening Star, December 24, 1855

Odd Fellows' Funeral

Eastern Lodge, with their banner shrouded in mourning, accompanied by a band of martial music, yesterday afternoon attended the funeral of their late brother member, John Mothershead. Notwithstanding the disagreeable walking from the late residence of the deceased to the Congressional cemetery, the order was out in large numbers. The Rev. Mr. Butler officiated in the solemn service of the dead.