

Arthur Lee Murray

(- 4 Jul 1949)

Murray, Arthur Lee. On July 4, 1949, Arthur Lee Murray, of 5705 43rd st., Hyattsville, Md., husband of Elizabeth Emma and father of Linda Ann Murray. Services at the Chambers Funeral Home 517 11th st. s.e., Thursday, July 7, at 2:30 p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

Murray, Arthur L. On Monday, July 4, 1949, at Washington, D.C., Arthur L. Murray, member of the Columbia Typographical Union, No. 101, and The Evening Star Chapel. Remains resting at Chambers Funeral Home, 517 11th st. s.e. Funeral services Thursday, July 7, at 2:30 p.m., at the above funeral home. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

Joseph Z. Lins, Secretary-Treasurer.

Murray, Arthur Lee. A special communication of King Solomon Lodge No. 31, F.A.A.M., will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, July 7, 1949, for the purpose of giving Masonic burial to our late brother, Arthur Lee Murray. A good attendance is desired.

James D. Foote, Sr., Master

James R. Beaubiah, Secretary

The Evening Star, July 6, 1949, p. A14

Rites for Arthur L. Murray, Star Printer, Tomorrow

Funeral services for Arthur Lee Murray, 44, a printer for The Star for the last six years, will be held at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow, at the Chambers funeral home, 517 Eleventh street S.E. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. Murray died Monday at George Washington University Hospital after a two-week illness.

Born in Southeast Washington, he attended schools there. While still in his teens he took his apprenticeship training at The Star. He then went to Canonsburg, Pa., where he worked as a printer for a newspaper there until six years ago. Since returning to the Washington area, he lived at 5105 Forty-third street, Hyattsville.

Mr. Murray was a member of the King Solomon Masonic Lodge and the Columbia Typographical Union.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Murray, and a daughter, Lina Ann. A special communication of King Solomon Lodge No. 31, F.A.A.M., will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, July 7, 1949, for the purpose of giving Masonic burial to our late brother, Arthur Lee Murray. A good attendance is desired.

James D. Foote, Sr., Master

James R. Beaubiah, Secretary

The Evening Star, July 6, 1949, p. A14

Rites for Arthur L. Murray, Star Printer, Tomorrow

Funeral services for Arthur Lee Murray, 44, a printer for The Star for the last six years, will be held at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow, at the Chambers funeral home, 517 Eleventh street S.E. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. Murray died Monday at George Washington University Hospital after a two-week illness.

Born in Southeast Washington, he attended schools there. While still in his teens he took his apprenticeship training at The Star. He then went to Canonsburg, Pa., where he worked as a printer for a newspaper there until six years ago. Since returning to the Washington area, he lived at 5105 Forty-third street, Hyattsville.

Mr. Murray was a member of the King Solomon Masonic Lodge and the Columbia Typographical Union.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Murray, and a daughter, Lina Ann.