

Virginia C.K. Neagle

(- 19 Dec 1903)

The Evening Star, December 23, 1903, p. 16

Funeral of Mrs. Neagle

Funeral services were held at St. Margaret's P.E. Church Monday afternoon over the remains of Mrs. Virginia C.K. Neagle, who died at the residence of her niece, Mrs. John F. Waggaman, 1627 19th street, Saturday. Interment was made in Congressional cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Lewis J. Davis, W. Cranch McIntire, Phillip Mauro, W. Riley Deeble, J. Miller Kenyon and Alexander P. Shaw.

The deceased was for many years an assistant examiner in the United States patent office, where she won many friends.