Mrs. Nicholson Dead

Mrs. Elizabeth Nicholson, widow of Walter Lamb Nicholson, for many years toographer of the Post Office Department, died at her home in the Belgrade apartments yesterday in her ninety-first year. She had been in feeble health for a number of years, but death was hastened by a fall resulting from vertigo, March 10.

Mrs. Nicholson was a native of England, but had lived in this city for many years. During the civil war she devoted much time to nursing stricken soldiers in the city. She also gave valued assistance in the conduct of her husband's office.

Although crippled by a fall years ago and confined to her rooms, she maintained marked cheerfulness.

She leaves two daughters, Miss Midie L. Nicholson of this city, with whom she lived, and Mrs. Charles A. Davis of South Dennis, Mass.
