Paul F. Oliveri Dies; Ex-Vaudeville Actor

Paul F. Oliveri, 79, a former vaudeville actor, died Friday of a heart attack in the Washington Sanitarium.

Mr. Oliveri played many of the country's old theaters from 1905 until the late 1930s on the Cosmos and Keith's circuits as Paul Francis.

He then became manager of a sightseeing office for White House tours until his retirement in 1958.

A lifelong resident of the Washington area, he was living at 1015 Fairview avenue, Takoma Park, Md., at the time of his death.

He is survived by a brother, Salvador (Buck), of 3006 Cheverly avenue, Cheverly, Md., and four sisters, Miss Julia M. Oliveri and Miss Jennie O. Russell of 905 Davis avenue, Takoma Park; Mrs. Elizabeth Dwyer of 7004 Greig street, Seat Pleasant, Md., and Mrs. Lillie Nixon of 1015 Fairview avenue, Takoma Park.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Chambers Funeral Home, 8655 Georgia avenue, Silver Spring. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.
