

Charles B. Parkman

( - 6 Oct 1918)

---

Parkman. At his residence, 672 Maryland avenue northeast, Sunday evening, October 6, 1918, Charles Breck Parkman, aged 77 years, son of the late Robert Breck Parkman of Parkman, Ohio and husband of Charlotte N. Parkman of this city. Funeral service at the residence, Wednesday, October 9 at 2 p.m. Friends invited. Interment private.

The Evening Star, October 7, 1918, p. 4

Charles B. Parkman Dies

Civil War Veteran Had Been Treasury Employee for 53 Years

Charles Breck Parkman, for the past fifty-three years an employe of the Treasury Department and a veteran of the civil war, died at his home, 672 Maryland avenue, last night. Mr. Parkman had been in failing health for more than a year. Funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

Mr. Parkman has been a senior clerk for the past twenty years in the office of the auditor for the State Department. He served as private secretary to four successive first controllers of the Treasury.

He enlisted in August 1862, in the 20th Connecticut Volunteers and served through the civil war. He was confined for a short time in Libby prison, following the battle of Chancellorsville.

He was educated in private schools and at Yale University. He was a member of Burnside Post, G.A.R.

Mr. Parkman is survived by his wife and four children Miss Mary R. Parkman and Charles H. Parkman of Washington, Rev. Henry C. Parkman of Baltimore and S.S. Parkman of New York.

The Evening Star, October 8, 1918

Funeral of C.B. Parkman

Son to Officiate at Last Rites for Treasury Employee

Funeral services for Charles B. Parkman, a veteran employee of the Treasury Department, who died at his home, 672 Maryland avenue northeast, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at his late home.