Funeral

About one hundred and fifty members of the Bricklayers' Union, under the membership of Walter Donson, and preceded by the Marine Band, yesterday morning attended the funeral of a deceased member, Robert Patterson, from his late residence on Capitol Hill. The funeral services took place at St. Peter's Church after which the members of the Union passed around to take a last view of their deceased comrade, while the band, under Professor Scala, occupied the choir gallery and rendered the "Miserere" and other choice selections of music with splendid effect. The interment took place at the Congressional Cemetery.
