Anacostia News

The remains of the youth who shot and killed himself near Cumberland, Md., some days ago, as published in The Star when report of the occurrence was forwarded to the Washington police department in the hope of having the body identified, were those of Frank B. Paxton, fifteen years old, who disappeared from the home of his uncle, Louis Paxton, on Jefferson street, Anacostia, more than a week before, as reported in The Star at the time. Mr. Paxton had the body sent on to the undertaking establishment of Thomas R. Nalley, on 11th street southeast, where it rested until yesterday, when interment was made in the Congressional cemetery. Following the burial services were held in the cemetery chapel.
