

Eli K. Pickell

(- 20 Aug 1858)

The Evening Star, August 23, 1858

Burial

Saturday, the Association of Stonecutters paraded to attend the funeral of J. Pickell, who was accidentally drowned at the Little Falls. The deceased was an Englishman, without family or relatives in this city. Being out of work he made a visit to the Falls, and while there took a notion to bathe. He went into the canal and was drowned.