

James K. Plant

(- 26 Feb 1874)

Plant. Of paralysis at 3 o'clock p.m., February 26, 1874, James K. Plant in the 73d year of his age, a native of Manchester, England, but for the last fifty-six years a resident of the District of Columbia. The funeral will take place from his late residence, 923 D street northwest, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The friends of the family are invited to attend. The association of Oldest Inhabitants are requested to attend, without further notice. [Alexandria papers copy]

The Evening Star, February 27, 1874

Death of Mr. James K. Plant

Yesterday afternoon Mr. James K. Plant, an old citizen of the District, died at his residence, on D street of paralysis. Mr. Plant was born in Manchester, Eng., was seventy-three years of age, and had been a resident of the District for 56 years. He engaged in the cabinet-making business in the year 1827, and carried it on for a number of years. About five years ago he had an attack of paralysis, from which he recovered with a much impaired intellect. Yesterday, about 1 o'clock, he was stricken with the disease and expired about 3 o'clock. His funeral will take place from his late residence on Sunday afternoon.