

Rose Riordon

(- 2 Aug 1913)

Riordon. On Saturday, August 2, 1913, at 10:50 p.m., Rose, beloved wife of John M. Riordon. Funeral Tuesday from late residence, 401 6th Street southeast. Requiem mass 9 a.m. at St. Peter's Church. (Richmond papers please copy) [The Evening Star, Monday, August 4, 1913]

The Evening Star, August 4, 1913, p. 14

Final Rites Tomorrow

Funeral of Mrs. Rose Riordan From St. Peter's Church

Funeral services for Mrs. Rose Riordan, who died at her home, 401 D street southeast, late Saturday night, will take place tomorrow morning from St. Peter's Church, 2d and C streets southeast. Interment will be in Congressional cemetery.

Mrs. Riordan was wife of John M. Riordan, cashier of the Bank of Commerce and Savings. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Mead. Her mother died only a few months ago.

Mrs. Riordan is survived by her husband and daughter, Miss Helen Riordan, member of the second-year class of the Eastern High School. Pallbearers will be Albert S. Gatley, Robert Russell, Hume Smith, John Mulloy, Raymond Riordan and Charles E. Riordan.