

Fannie E. Skirving

(- 29 Aug 1915)

Skirving. On Sunday, August 29, 1915, at 3:30 p.m., at the residence of her grandson, C.S. Mattingly, 2217 14th street northwest, Fannie E., dearly beloved wife of the late John Skirving and mother of Mrs. Anna M. Mattingly and Mrs. W.F. Paxson. Funeral on Tuesday, August 31. Interment private.

The Evening Star, August 31, 1915, p. 20

Mrs. F.E. Skirving Dead

Charter Member of Seventh-Day Adventist Memorial Church

Mrs. Fannie E. Skirving, eighty-three years old, a resident of Washington for sixty-three years, died Sunday afternoon at the home of her grandson, Clarence S. Mattingly, 2217 14th street northwest, following a short illness. Funeral services were held today. Interment was private.

Mrs. Skirving was one of the charter members of the Seventh-day Adventist Memorial Church, 12th and M streets northwest, and until failing health prevented, was active in all work of the church.

Two daughters, Mrs. W.F. Paxson of this city and Mrs. Anna M. Mattingly of Akron, Ohio; a brother, Charles J. Towner of Clarendon, Va.; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren are living.