

Son of David Stewart

( - 1 Jun 1826)

---

The National Intelligencer, June 1, 1826

We are sorry to record another distressing death. A promising youth of 8 years of age, son of Mr. Stewart, playing on Pennsylvania Avenue, ran against a horse passing in a cart, was thrown down by the encounter and trodden on by the horse so as to cause his instant death.